

The people of NJ have a right to privacy. Our elected officials have passed a law protecting us from unsolicited calls from telemarketers. It has been very effective. Do not undermine the will of the people of NJ by overturning this piece of legislation.